Soup's on!

Attractive Soup Stations available in island or end cap configurations.

It is officially Soup Season, and what better way to highlight your delicious offerings than a new soup station from Piper? From simple chicken noodle, to steaming chili, to an aromatic crab bisque, they all look more delectable when served from one of our counters. Select from oval, round or rectangular shapes in island or end cap styles, or collaborate with our designers to come up with your own unique vision. Then add bowl, napkin and silverware dispensers for a full service counter, and top it with a stylish protector guard with LED lights. Finally, complete the design with details like under counter shelves, perimeter bumpers, and a stone top. Your new soup station is sure to attract more customers as the seasons cool, so whatever details you decide to include, make sure you have a lot of spoons. - you will need them!
